

Emergency Anaesthesia Symposium

(Vascular Emergencies)

Post Graduate Centre, Education South, Manchester Royal Infirmary, CMUH
Monday 26th April 2010
Registration 8.30-9.15

9.15 Introduction and welcome

Adam Pichel

9.25-10.00 Current medical management of acute stroke and TIA

Philippa Tyrrell

Consultant in Stroke Medicine, Hope Hospital, Salford

10.00-10.30 Current evidence for carotid stenting in the management of TIA

Ray Ashleigh

Vascular Radiologist, Wythenshawe Hospital, Manchester

10.30-11.00 Refreshments

11.00-11.30 Surgical management of TIA and stroke

Dave Murray Tbc

Consultant Vascular Surgeon, Central Manchester University Hospitals

11.30-12.15 Anaesthetic considerations for urgent carotid surgery

Andrew Lumb

Consultant Anaesthetist, Leeds Teaching Hospitals

LUNCH 12.15-13.30

13.30-14.15 Perioperative management of massive haemorrhage

Dafydd Thomas

Consultant Anaesthetist, Morriston Hospital, Swansea

14.15-14.45 Endovascular repair of ruptured abdominal aortic aneurysm

Ferdinand Serracino-Inglott

Consultant Vascular and Endovascular Surgeon, Regional Vascular and Endovascular Unit, Central Manchester University Hospitals

14.45-15.15 Anaesthetic management of RAAA

Nick Wisely

Consultant Anaesthetist, Wythenshawe Hospital, Manchester

Refreshments: followed by Annual Update on Emergency Laparotomy

15.45-16.00 The National Emergency Laparotomy Network

Adam Pichel

Consultant Anaesthetist, Central Manchester University Hospitals

16.00-16.30 Update emergency laparotomy: CMUH Database review

Simon Varley

Consultant Anaesthetist

Central Manchester University Hospitals