

OPIOIDS IN CHRONIC PAIN

Friday 3rd September 2010
The Education centre
Rochdale Infirmary
Whitehall Street
Rochdale,
OL12 0NB

This course is aimed at GP/GP Trainees, Physicians/Medical Trainees, Pain Trainees/Specialists, Specialist Nurses in Pain, Rheumatology and Palliative Care

Topics

8am – 12 noon

Morning Session: Chair – Dr R Bishma, Pain Consultant

Basic Pharmacology of commonly used Opioids - Dr S Phenna, NAPP Medical Advisor
Adverse Effects – ‘First of all do no harm’ - Dr A Swayamprakasam, Pain Consultant
Addiction - Dr C Cooper, Consultant Psychiatrist – (substance misuse)

1pm – 5pm

Afternoon session: Chair – Dr B Miller, Pain Consultant

Use in Cancer pain - Practical aspects - Dr I Lawrie, Consultant in Palliative Care
Use in non-Cancer pain Practical aspects - Dr P Stellar, Pain Consultant
Opioid Rotation - Dr J Adedokun, Pain Consultant
Opioid Review - Dr A Karmarker, Pain Consultant
Patients with Psychiatric problems, Dr S Connor, Staff Grade in Psychiatry

Places limited to 40 delegates

Course fee £25.00

10 bursary places are available for suitable candidates

Course organiser: Dr A Swayamprakasam, FRCA, FFPMRCA

For further information and to reserve a place, please contact
Miss Emma-Louise Croney, Rochdale Pain Management Service, Rochdale Infirmary, 01706 517705, or emma-louise.cronney@pat.nhs.uk